

On the Green

DECEMBER 13, 1972
VOL. II, NO. 8

AN EVENING ON DEAFNESS: A FOLLOW-UP

Due to the overwhelming response to the recent special on deafness, "They Grow in Silence: An Evening on Deafness," the Maryland Center for Public Broadcasting will devote its "Point Blank" program on Friday, December 15 at 10 p.m. to an additional exploration of this subject. The program, which will be shown over channels 67, 73, and 28, will be hosted by Tom Gillette.

Guest participants will be: Dr. William Hardy, director, Hearing and Speech Center, Johns Hopkins Hospital; David Denton, superintendent, Maryland School for the Deaf; Dr. McCay Vernon, professor of psychology, Western Maryland College; Addison Neal Smith, acting executive director, Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf; and Barbara Sachs, mental health expert, St. Elizabeths Hospital.

Once again, telephone and TTY lines will be available for viewers to relay questions or to ask advice.

The program will be repeated on Sunday, December 17 at 5:30 p.m.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

CLERK-TYPIST (Part-time): Audiology and Speech

CLERK-TYPIST: Alumni & Public Relations

RESEARCH ELECTRONICS ASSISTANT: Sensory Communication Research Lab

SECURITY OFFICER: Office of General Services

BUS MONITOR: Kendall School

SECRETARY II: Purchasing

For further information, contact the Office of Non-Faculty Personnel.

HONORARY DEGREE CANDIDATES

The Committee on Honorary Degrees of the General Faculty invites members of the faculty and staff to submit names to be considered as recipients of honorary degrees at the 1973 Commencement.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS

On December 13, William Stokoe will describe the aims and methods of the Linguistics Research Laboratory's current Sign-English Contrastive Project (NIH grant U.S.-10302) to staff and visiting scholars at the Center for Applied Linguistics in Arlington, Virginia....A special 15% discount is available to groups of 20 or more people interested in seeing the National Ballet's production of "The Nutcracker." Thirteen performances are scheduled from December 22 through January 1. Tickets can be purchased at the National Ballet box office, 2801 Connecticut Avenue, Montgomery Ward stores, and Ticketron outlets....Morris Goldman recently presented a paper to the sociology department at George Washington University on children's games in the 1930's as part of an oral history of that era.... Sally Law, Fay Shutsky, and Maryann McDermott need an additional person to take the Auto Train with them from Orlando, Florida, back to Washington, D.C., on New Years Eve. All food and entertainment are included for $57.50. If interested call Sally Law at 447-0475.

GIFTS RECENTLY RECEIVED BY THE COLLEGE

--Sears Roebuck & Co. - $500 to the Library

--Uniroyal Foundation - $1,000 to the President's Fund

--Mobil Foundation, Inc. - $1,000 to the President's Fund

IF YOU ARE HAVING TROUBLE REACHING US...

...The telephone numbers for Alumni and Public Relations in the new directory have not gone into effect yet. To contact the Alumni Office please continue to call 438 (voice) or 551 (TTY) or the Visitors Center please call 396 (voice) or 480 (TTY).

SEVEN SIGN COURSES TO BE OFFERED

The Office of Sign Language Programs will be offering seven courses in manual communication for the spring semester beginning Monday, January 15.

Included in the program will be two courses at both the beginning and intermediate levels, one at the advanced level and two interpreting courses, Introduction to Interpreting for the Deaf and Reverse Interpreting for the Deaf.

Classes will be scheduled for Monday and Wednesdays or Tuesday and Thursdays between the hours of 4:30 and 9:30 p.m. for 15 weeks.

Registration for the spring term will be on January 9 and 10 from 7 to 9 p.m. in Room 213 of Hall Memorial Building; or throughout the week of January 8 during business hours in the Office of Sign Language Programs in College Hall.

PUBLICATIONS AVAILABLE TO FACULTY

Two publications of interest to faculty members are available in the Development Office, room 122 of Hall Memorial Building.

--Federal Research Report: bi-monthly summary of government activities related to funds for research, education, and associated activities.

--Catalog of Federal Education Assistance Programs: 1972 edition

GALLAUDET RANKED EIGHTH IN MENTON TROPHY STANDINGS

Having earned 18 points in cross country and nine in soccer, Gallaudet is currently eighth in the standings for the Mason-Dixon Conference's Menton Trophy following the completion of the fall sports season.

The Menton Trophy, symbolic of the Mason-Dixon sports supremacy, is awarded at the conclusion of the spring sports season to the school compiling the most points throughout the year. Points are awarded for a team's finish in league competition, for the number of contests played against league opponents, and for a team's success in league championship play-offs.

NTD TO PRESENT "GILGAMESH"

The National Theatre of the Deaf will be presenting "Gilgamesh" in the Gallaudet Auditorium on January 20 and 21 at 8 p.m. Admission is $1.50 for students and $4.00 for adults.

Mail orders will be accepted by Jo Tracy from December 18 through January 10.

SEE YOU IN THE NEW YEAR

ON THE GREEN will not be published during the next two weeks, but will resume its weekly schedule on January 3.

Until then, best wishes for a joyous holiday season.

Judy Bortner, editor

Judy

JOY!
JOY!